DA PASSES JCS, DA FOR SECRETARY OF THE GENERAL STAFF,
PASS TO GEN W.B. PALMER ON HIS RETURN TO WASHINGTON.

1. Reference EC 9-3398, dtd 23 June 59, for your information on 26 June the acting commander of the Soviet Military Garrison in Berlin replied as follows to the USCOB letter protesting Vopos stopping American private vehicles on the Autobahn:

"I received your letter addressed to General N.F. Zakharov and read it over carefully. As it is apparent from the text of the letter, your officers have met with no hinderances at the Soviet checkpoints, whereas the incidents mentioned in the letter occurred in places which are outside of our sphere of influence, and therefore I must inform you that the misunderstanding indicated in your letter should be settled with proper authorities of the German Democratic Republic."

2. USCOB plans no further action on this matter at this time.
